House u Kazdů

We did not choose the U Kazdů building for our business by chance. Where else could we pay homage to the Irish tradition, if not in a building with such a rich history. The tenement building, which has the land-registry number 176, was originally completed in 1836. The architect Kazda then had it refurbished. The building got new attic space, a ground-floor Plzeň restaurant was brought into operation, as was a beer hall, dance hall and later the first Prague chicken grill. During the first republic, the U Kazdů building became a popular place for Prague artists, bohemian and snobs to meet. The onset of a totalitarian regime, however, caused serious damage to the building, repaired as a part of a total refurbishment and modernisation in 2011-2015. There was also a loft conversion that meant a new maisonette was built, as was an entry from the inner balcony on the building's third floor, in accordance with a design by the architect Škúrek. The whole of this heritage-protected building at the address Křižíkova 27 can therefore boast fame and comfortable services, as was the case some time in the past. It symbolically bears the name of its former owner Antonín Kazda. U Kazdů is in a heritage zone and is one of the best-looking and most sought-after residential and business buildings in the location. And now it is the home of our little piece of Ireland in Prague.

KARLÍN

Karlín is constantly evolving, becoming one of the most attractive areas in Prague, thanks to new projects that transform the district. One of the latest highlights is the modern multifunctional space, Karlín Hall, which was created from a former factory building and now hosts cultural events, concerts, and exhibitions. Another interesting addition is the newly completed Karlín Boulevard, blending historical architecture with modern design. If you haven't yet explored this unique part of Prague, take some time to wander its streets – and then stop by for something delicious at our place.

The Arthur's Times

Late Edition
We want to share with you what we love the most about the Green Island. That's why we founded a unique Irish bar where you can eat and drink delightfully, sit with friends and laugh in a pleasant environment in the heart of Karlín.

The 11th of November 2024

No., 27 Křižíkova

About us...

Love of Ireland, Scotland and the culture there, that's what Arthur's is about. We travelled around the world for a long time, enjoying great food and drink (whisky is our favourite) and as architecture enthusiasts we admired the design of various places. We remained loyal to Prague in heart and soul, but every time we returned to our native land, we felt something was missing.

About our bar...

People don't come here just for the food. Drinks are just as important to us, from ordinary water to fine whiskey. We don't want them to be just something to go with food, but a full item on your table. Drinks that surprise, refresh and impress you. They will not only quench your thirst, but also bliss out your other senses. Beer. That will force you to have another, because you've never had one so good. How come? Our masters of liquid craft are behind this. The head bartender who creates new recipes and a wonderful team behind the bar, who follow the motto: „nothing must be rushed“ and thus devote due care to each drink.

So that we did not have to leave the Czech Republic when we had such longing, an idea was born. The idea of creating a place that would fill up our emptiness and soothe our nostalgia. A place that could bring the joy and inspiration collected on our travels. And voilà! The seed for Arthur's was sown. But why Arthur's Pub? It was easy. Arthur was the first name of the founder of the popular Guinness brewery. Basically, we just couldn't resist the name.
